[Objective: Write one to two sentences about your life goals! Where do you want to go to college? What career do you want? How does your work experience and hobbies align to these goals?]

In my opinion I do not have a college that I want to go to right now. As I get older and focus in the medical field, I will find a college that is perfect for my needs and for the education that I am aiming for. The career that I am aiming for is to become a pediatrician because I really want to be able to kids and I really love to take care of kids, since I have a little brother, I am the oldest sibling. My experiences of entering SMASH has helped me improve my speech and my confidence when it comes to talking out in the open and to others. SMASH is has helped me in biology and helped me learn new aspects of science. The goals that I have set for myself is to be able to exceed myself and to be able to learn new things about medical and other related subjects to medical.
